As the contents of the following pages pretend to no originality, beyond the selection of the materials, it seems needless to particularise, further than the Title Page, & the Table of Contents disclose them, the sources from which, in each particular case, the Litanies are derived. Many of the Litanies have previously appeared in print, either in their present shape, or under different combinations. Mr. Bright's "Ancient Collects;" Mr. Malan's "Prayers for the Holy Communion" from Eastern Sources; "Holy Communion," published by Mr. Lumley; "The Eucharistic Month," translated by Mr. G. Cosby White; "A Companion to Holy Communion," by a Layman; Mr. Parker's Edition of "The Imitation of CHRIST;" & other works, have, with much generosity, been placed at the Editor's disposal, in order order that the present collection may be the more complete. The materials from these storehouses of Devotional Treasures have been used in two ways. They have been extracted entire, as they were published, as Litanies: & they have been borrowed piece-meal, & afterwards arranged as they now appear. By the former plan, most of the more beautiful of the Litanies in our language, have been collected; & by the latter, most of the more valued & many of the more familiar passages of those devotions we commonly employ, have been reproduced, in a single Volume.

In addition to Litanies from these sources, others have been contributed, from Holy Scripture, Ancient Liturgies, or other Manuals, by friends who have intrusted them, on their first publication, or otherwise, to the present Collection.

It will thus appear, that this Compilation—which contains Litanies on the Most Holy Communion, drawn from Eucharistic Sources, or founded upon Eucharistic Truths,—owes its origin, to a very large extent, either to the indirect assistance, or to the active co-operation of numerous kind friends, to whom the Editor is much indebted.

A Se-

A Second Part, in the event of its publication, will contain Penitential Litanies, & those of a more subjective character than are to be found in the present Volume. Amongst others, it is proposed to publish Litanies on the Adorable Passion of our Blessed LORD, in the very words of Holy Scripture; on the Words of CHRIST, & of the enemies of CHRIST; for the Sick, for the Dying, & for those whom “not lost, but gone before,” the dictates of natural instinct, no less than the custom of CHRIST’S Church Catholic, bids us remember in our prayers—the Faithful Departed; for the Seasons of Lent, & Advent; &—which are altogether omitted in the First Part—Litanies of GOD, the HOLY GHOST.

For the arrangement of the Litanies, the Editor is alone responsible. In many of them, where it is practicable, it has been endeavoured, after the example of Bishop Andrewes, & other former Devotions, to accommodate the form to the sense, & to assist the higher faculties by means of the lower. For convenience’ sake, a selection of “Invocations” & “Conclusions” respectively commence, & close the Volume. This leaves the subject matter of
the

the Litany free from either adjunct. A little consideration will show how the Litany is to be said. The introductory words, containing the Titles of the Divine PERSON addressed, may be repeated before each succeeding Invocation. The Form, "That it may please Thee," &c., may also, in many cases, be supplied where it is needed. And the Response may always be repeated in full, even where, for the sake of marking more strongly the divisions of the several Petitions, the first words alone are printed.

May Almighty GOD be pleased to bless the publication of this little Book to His greater Glory.

I.

Most gracious God,
Who dost govern all things
In Heaven & Earth ;
Graciously bear us, Good LORD.

Who knowest us to be set in the midst
Of so many, & great dangers,
That we cannot always stand upright ;
Graciously.

Who seest that we put not our trust
In any thing that we do ;
Graciously.

---

<sup>1</sup> From the Collects in the Book of Common Prayer.

Who

Who hast taught us
That all our doings, without Charity,
Are nothing worth ;
Graciously.

Who hatest nothing that Thou hast made,
& dost forgive the sins of all that are penitent ;
Graciously.

Who seest that we have no power
Of ourselves, to help ourselves ;
Graciously.

Who shewest to them that be in error
The Light of Thy Truth,
That they may return to the way of Godliness ;
Graciously.

Who alone canst order
The unruly wills,
& affections of sinful men ;
Graciously.

We sinners,
Do beseech Thee,
That we may both perceive, & know
What

What things we ought to do ;
& also, may have Grace, & Power
Faithfully to fulfil the same ;
Hear, & save.

That Thou grant us such strength, & protection,
As may support us in all dangers,
& carry us through all temptations ;
Hear, & save.

That we, who lean only upon the hope
Of Thy Heavenly Grace,
May evermore be defended
By Thy mighty Power ;
Hear, & save.

That Thou pour into our hearts,
That most excellent Gift of Charity ;
Hear, & save.

That we, worthily lamenting our sins,
& acknowledging our wretchedness,
May obtain remission, & forgiveness ;
Hear, & save.

That we may be defended
From all adversities

Which

Which may happen to the body ;
 & from all evil thoughts,
 Which may assault & hurt the soul ;
Hear, & save.

That we may eschew those things
 That are contrary to our Profession ;
 & may follow all such things
 As are agreeable to the same ;
Hear, & save.

That we may love the thing
 Which Thou commandest,
 & may desire
 That which Thou dost promise ;
Hear, & save.

II.

Most Gracious God,
 Who art the Strength
 Of all that put their trust in Thee,
Graciously bear us, Good LORD.

Who never failest to help, & govern
 Them whom Thou dost bring up

In

In Thy stedfast Fear, & Love ;
Graciously.

Without Whom,
Nothing is strong, nothing is holy ;
Graciously.

Who hast prepared for them that love Thee,
Such good things as pass man's understanding ;
Graciously.

Who art the Author, & Giver
Of all good things ;
Graciously.

Whose never-failing Providence
Ordereth all things in Heaven & earth ;
Graciously.

Who declarest Thy Almighty Power
Most chiefly in showing Mercy, & Pity ;
Graciously.

Who art always more ready to hear,
Than we to pray ;
& art wont to give more
Than either we desire, or deserve ;
Graciously.

Of

Of Whose only Gift it cometh
That Thy faithful People do unto Thee,
True & laudable Service ;
Graciously.

Our Refuge, & Strength,
Who art the Author of all Godliness ;
Graciously.

We sinners,
Do beseech Thee.

That those things we ask faithfully,
We may obtain effectually ;
Hear, & save.

That we may so faithfully serve Thee
In this life,
That we fail not, finally, to attain
Thy Heavenly Promises ;
Hear, & save.

That Thou mayest forgive us those things
Whereof our conscience is afraid ;
& mayest give us those good things
Which we are not worthy to ask ;
Hear, & save.

That,

That, running the way of Thy Commandments,
We may obtain Thy Promises ;
& be made partakers of
Thy Heavenly Treasures ;
Hear, & save.

That Thou put away from us
All hurtful things ;
& give us those things
Which be profitable for us ;
Hear, & save.

That we may obtain Thy Promises,
Which exceed all we can desire ;
Hear, & save.

That we may so pass through
Things temporal,
That we finally lose not the
Things Eternal ;
Hear, & save.

That we may obtain
That which Thou dost promise,
Make us to love
That which Thou dost command ;
Hear, & save.

That

That in keeping of Thy Commandments
We may please Thee both in will & deed ;
Hear, & save.

That Thou increase in us true Religion,
Nourish us with all Goodness,
& of Thy great Mercy
Keep us in the same ;
Hear, & save.

That we, who cannot do anything
That is good without Thee,
May by Thee, be enabled to live
According to Thy Will ;
Hear, & save.

Who hast hallowed the first dawn

Hast subdued the pride of the ancient enemy ;

 To sit on the foal of an ass,
 & the people to spread their garments,
 To strew branches in the way,
 & to cry, Hosannah ;

May He cause our Oblation
 To be acceptable to Thee,
 Who delivered This Holy Rite
 To His Disciples,
 For a Remembrance of Himself ;

 Didst give Thy Son
 To suffer Death upon the Cross ;

The Fountain of everlasting Life
In the world to come ;
Grant us.

That we may have Grace, to receive
The fruit of His Redemption,

By the Ineffable Mystery of the Incarnation,
Took upon Him our Nature ;
Spare us.

Grant

Grant us to receive
The New Light of the world, made Flesh ; &
Spare us.

Who didst fulfil the expectation of
The devout Simeon,
In manifesting to him the LORD's CHRIST ;
Spare us.

Behold the Oblations of Thy Church,
Amongst which,
Neither Gold, nor Frankincense, nor Myrrh,
Are offered,
But That Which is figured by them ;
Spare us.

Whose Blessed Son,
By a solemn Fasting,
Entered upon the work of His Ministry ;
Spare us.

Whose Only Son, in a desert place,

 Our Merciful, & Faithful High Priest,
 Having Ascended into Heaven,
 Ever liveth to make Intercession for us ;

 At His Second Coming,

Shall appear in Glorious Majesty ;
Spare us.

We sinners, do beseech Thee,

 Have attained the liberty of sons,
 May be partakers of the eternal Inheritance ;

 May, at the last day,

LITANIES

LITANIES OF OUR BLESSED LORD.

[Eucharistic Prayers for the Sundays in Lent.]<sup>1</sup>

I.

We ask forgiveness ; CHRIST, hear us ;
Be appeased, & have pity.

JESU, Only Begotten SON of GOD the FATHER,
Who art the LORD of boundless Goodness ;
Be appeased.

We all beseech Thee, craving it with groans ;
we all jointly entreating, pray ;
Be appeased.

Now let Thy Clemency repair our evils ; now look on us with Thy gracious Face ;
Be appeased.

Graciously remove from us Thy wrath ; put an end to sin ; give rest from evil ;

Be appeased.

Tranquillity of times ; abundance of good things ; quiet peace ; plenteous health ;

Be appeased.

Bestow Thy aid on the Bishop —, and on Thy suppliant people ;

Be appeased.

We ask remission of all sins ; mercifully forgive the evils we have committed ;

Be appeased.

II.

Have mercy, & spare Thy people, most Clement LORD ;

Because we have sinned against Thee.

Prostrate, we all pour forth tears ; laying open to Thee our secret faults ; of Thee, O God, we ask pardon ;

Because.

Receive the prayers of Thy Priests ; & richly bestow bestow all that they ask ; & pity Thy people, O

LORD ;

Because.

Thou hast brought Thy anger over us ; our dire offences have bowed us down ; & we have fainted, without any hope ;

Because.

We have been given up to evils which we knew not ; & every evil is rushing in upon us ;
& we call on Thee, & we have not hearkened unto Thee ;

Because.

We all cry aloud ; we all intreat ; we seek Thee with tears of penitence, Whose wrath we have ourselves provoked ;

Because.

Intreating Thee, we beg of Thee, with lamentation ; Thee, JESUS CHRIST, we prostrate seek ; let Thy Power now relieve the miserable ;

Because.

Receive the confession of Thy people, which we

we lamenting, pour out before Thee ; & we groan in heart for our offences ;

Because.

Peace we ask ; peace vouchsafe us ; remove wars, & rescue us all ; with humble prayer we implore Thee, LORD ;

Because.

Incline Thine ear, O most Clement God ; now shall the stains of our sins be washed away ; & do Thou benignantly deliver us from danger ;

Have pity, & spare.

III.

We pray Thee, Holy God, Eternal King ;

Now have mercy ; we have sinned against Thee.

Hear our cry, most High FATHER ; & mercifully grant our requests ; hear us, O Lord ;

Now.

O Good REDEEMER, we humbly pray ; weeping from our whole heart, we pray Thee graciously be present with us ;

Now.

Send

Send out Thy Hand, O God Almighty ; & powerfully protect from on high those who call upon Thee, O most Loving ;

Now.

Grant us fruitful lands, & peace ; remove wars ; restrain famines, O REDEEMER Most Holy ;

Now.

Forgive the fallen ; forgive the lost ; put away hurtful things ; wash out crimes ; do Thou deliver those who are bowed down ;

Now.

Look on us groaning ; consider our weeping ; extend Thy Hand ; redeem the sinners ;

Now.

Receive, O God, this our prayer ; favourably receive the voices of the suppliants ; & spare, O most Loving ;

We pray Thee now have mercy.

IV.

Behold, O LORD, my humiliation, because the enemy hath been lifted up;

Have mercy, O Righteous FATHER; & grant forgiveness to all.

“Sent from the FATHER, I came to seek the lost; & to redeem with Blood those captured by the enemy: the terrible people cast Me away;”

Have mercy.

“Foretold by Prophets, I was born of the Virgin; I assumed the form of a Servant, to gather the dispersed; the hunters took Me;”

Have mercy.

“Unto Me for good, many evils were returned; against Me sold for money, they gave unrighteous counsels;”

Have mercy.

“They set a Crown of Thorns on My Head, which was defiled with spitting; the impious scoffed at Me when cruelly afflicted;”

Have mercy.

“With

“ With guilty robbers, hung on a Gibbet ; fed with bitter food, and bitter cup ; given over to execution ;”

Have mercy.

“ They whom I came to deliver, accused Me ; they lashed Me with scourges, and nailed Me to the Cross ; with a spear they pierced Me ;”

Have mercy.

O Thou, Who didst put away the guilt of an impious robber, do Thou loose our chains, remit our sins, save us by Thy Cross ;

Have mercy.

“ I was delivered to the Sepulchre ; I burst the gates of hell ; I cast out those that were bound, and brought them back on high ; I showed Myself in Sacrifice ;”

Have mercy.

“ Most Clement FATHER, forgive them all offences ; wash out sins ; and remit the crimes of those who know not what they do ;”

Have mercy.

V.

“ Mine adversaries laid snares for Me without a cause ; ”

Thou, Holy FATHER, have mercy, & deliver me.

“ I was led as an innocent Lamb to the Sacrifice ; I was taken by enemies, as a bird in a snare ; sorely without cause ; ”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

“ All of them opened their mouths against Me ; they gnashed upon Me with their teeth ; seeking to deliver me ; sorely without cause ; ”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

“ They cried aloud, hissing ; & they shook their heads ; taking in hand to bring forth false witnesses against Me ; sorely without cause ; ”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

“ They condemn Me ; & hang Me on the Cross, fixed with iron nails ; sold by the Jews for thirty pieces of silver ; sorely without cause ; ”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

“ I was

“ I was pierced in the Side by a horrible spear ; thence flows Water, with innocent Blood ; sorely without cause ;”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

“ They all came upon Me, like a flood of waters, & I was plunged in the Sepulchre ; they laid a stone upon it ; sorely without cause ;”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

“ All the stars of Heaven grew pale with confusion ; the day is wrapped in darkness when it sees its LORD suffer ; sorely without cause ;”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

“ So the multitude of the Jews, with blind mistrust, ask of Pilate a band of soldiers ; sorely
without cause ;”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

“ Then the soldiers divide My Vesture by lot ;
gazing at the unrighteous & savage blows laid upon Me ; sorely without cause ;”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

“ Give ear, O loving FATHER, & succour the miserable

miserable, for whom I am afflicted with such bitter punishments ; sorely without cause ;”

Thou, Holy FATHER.

VI.

Remember us, O CHRIST, in Thy Kingdom ; & make us worthy of Thy Resurrection.

“ With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you ;”

Before I suffer.

“ Go ye, & prepare us the Passover, that we may eat ;”

Before I suffer.

“ Behold, when ye go into the City . . . . say ye to the good man of the house — ;”

Before I suffer.

“ The Master saith, My time is at hand, where is . . . . with My Disciples ;”

Before I suffer.

“ & he will show you . . . . make ready the Passover ;”

Before I suffer.

& the

& the Disciples went . . . . made ready the Passover;

With desire, I have desired.

& when even was come, JESUS . . . . said unto them;

With desire.

“ For I say unto you . . . . in the Kingdom of GOD ;”

With desire.

He took Bread, & blessed, & brake . . . . & said unto them;

With desire.

“ Take, Eat, THIS is . . . . This do ye ;”

With desire.

Likewise also, the Cup . . . . saying, “ Take This ;” & He gave thanks . . . . saying — ;

With desire.

“ Drink ye all of This, for THIS is . . . . for the remission of sins ;”

With desire.

Glory & honour to FATHER, SON, HOLY SPIRIT, for ever & ever. Amen.

With desire.

O LORD JESU CHRIST,
Son of the Living God,
Who, for our Redemption,
Didst will to be born ;
LORD, remember me
When Thou comest into Thy Kingdom.

Who didst will to be circumcised ;
To be rejected by the Jews ;
To be betrayed by Judas, with a kiss ;
& to be taken bound in chains ;
LORD, remember.

<sup>1</sup> From the Devotions of S. Ambrose, & other ancient sources.

Who

Who didst will to be haled before
Annas, Caiaphas, Herod, & Pilate ;
LORD, remember.

& in their presence to be mocked,
& to be smitten with
Blows, buffets, stripes, & the reed ;
LORD, remember.

To be spitted on in the Face ;
To be crowned with thorns ;
To be accused of false witnessies ;
To be judged ;
& as a Lamb, to be led as a Victim ;
LORD, remember.

Who didst will to be pierced with nails ;
To be made to drink of vinegar & gall ;
& upon the Cross,
To be condemned to a most shameful Death ;
LORD, remember.

From all evils, at all times ;
Good LORD, deliver us.

From injury, & snares ;

From

From captivity, & bonds ;
& from the tongues, & weapons, & shafts

We sinners, do beseech Thee ;
To bear us, O LORD GOD.

That we, through Thy Grace,
May always so believe, & understand,
So conceive, & firmly hold,
So think, & so speak,
Of that exceeding Mystery,
As shall please Thee, & be good for our Souls ;
We pray Thee to bear us.

That Thy Good SPIRIT may enter our hearts,
& be heard without utterance ;
& may speak all Truth,
Without the sound of words ;

& fountain of tears ;
With reverence, & awe ;

That we may approach this H. Sacrifice
With fear, & trembling ;
With cleanness of heart, & streams of tears ;
With spiritual gladness, & Heavenly joy ;
We pray Thee.

That, through our unworthiness,
The price of their Salvation be not wasted,
For whom Thou hast vouchsafed to be
A saving Victim, & Redemption ;
We pray Thee.

That Thou graciously behold
The tribulation of the People,
The groans of Prisoners,
& the miseries of Orphans ;

That Thou favourably listen to
 The aspirations of Young Men,
 The vows of Virgins,
 & the sorrows of the Widow ;

We pray Thee.

That Thou take from us
 The heart of stone ;
 & that Thou give unto us
 A heart of flesh,

To love Thee, choose Thee, delight in Thee,
 To follow Thee, & to enjoy Thee ;

We pray Thee.

That this great Sacrament
 Of Thy Love

May be, to the Souls of the Faithful Departed,
 Health & Salvation,
 Joy & Refreshment ;

We pray Thee.

That

That Thou cleanse the palate of our Heart ;
That we taste the sweetness of Thy Love ;
That Thou ever refresh, & never fail us ;

LITANIES OF EMMANUEL, GOD WITH US.

[On the Incarnation of our Blessed LORD.]<sup>1</sup>

I.

EMMANUEL,

Who wast looked for by the ancient Fathers,
announced by an Angel, conceived by a Virgin,
& in the end of the world, wast given unto men ;

Be clement.

Whose Incarnation wrought the Salvation of the world, & Whose Passion procured the Redemption of Man whom Thou hast created ;

Be clement.

Who art without end, & without number ;

Be clement.

Who not only remittest sins, but also justifiest
the sinners ; & Who not only forgivest the guilty,
but bestowest on them gifts & rewards ;

Be clement.

---

<sup>1</sup> From the Prayers for Advent, in the Sacramentary of S. Gregory.

Whose

Whose Forerunner, in his birth, in his preaching, & in the wilderness, was S. John the Baptist;
Be clement.

Who hast restored us by the Grace of Thy first Coming; & hast promised the Kingdom in Thy Second;

Be clement.

Whom the Unbegotten Greatness of the FATHER's Majesty begat, ever the SON, begotten before all times;

Be clement.

Who, by Thy Incarnation, didst chase away the darkness of the world; &, by Thy glorious Nativity, didst cast bright beams upon Creation;

Be clement.

Who willest that Thy all-holy Nativity should be announced by Angels unto shepherds;

Be clement.

Who, by Thy Incarnation, Invisible in Thy Substance, through Flesh, appearedst visible in ours, didst join things earthly to Heavenly;

Be clement.

Who,

Who, by the Mystery of Thy Incarnation, didst cause the new Light of Thy Brightness to shine upon the eyes of our mind ;

Be clement.

We sinners, beseech Thee ;

To bear us, O LORD GOD.

That we so celebrate the Mysteries of Thy first Advent, that we may await the second without fear ;

Grant us, Gracious LORD.

That Thou defend us from all adversity in this mortal life, & show Thyself appeased in the Day of Judgment ;

Grant us.

That Thou wash out from us, all which in the future sifting Thou wouldest punish ; that then, Thou mayest find nothing to condemn ;

Grant us.

That Thou supply us with aids for this life present, & impart to us the rewards of everlasting Bliss ;

Grant us.

That

That we, who are weighed down under the yoke of sin, through the servitude of the old man, may be set free by the Mystery of Thy new Birth ;

Grant us.

That, by Thy Gift, we may be found worthy to be humble amid things prosperous ; & in adversity, free from care ;

Grant us.

That no earthly words or actions may hinder us from hastening to meet Thee ; but that the instruction of Heavenly Wisdom may make us partakers of Thyself ;

Grant us.

That Thou gird up the loins of our minds with Thy Divine Virtue, that we may be found meet to receive the prize of Heavenly Dignities ;

Grant us.

That, by the Mystery of Thy Nativity, the minds of believers may be prepared, & the hearts of unbelievers may be subdued ;

Grant us.

K

That

That the celebration of Thy Incarnation may ever restore us, Whose new & wondrous Birth removed man's decrepitude ;

Grant us.

That they who have been redeemed by Thy Grace, may, through Thy Adoption, be freed from fear ;

Grant us.

That what we long earnestly to celebrate, in time, we may, without end, enjoy ;

Grant us.

II.

EMMANUEL,

Who, Only-Begotten, & Co-Eternal with the FATHER, wast born of a Virgin Mother, in real Substance of our Flesh ;

Be clement.

Who, by the Mystery of Thy Incarnation, savedst us from the impending peril of our sins ; & madest us meet to obtain Rescue through Thy protection, & Salvation through Thy deliverance ;

Be clement.

Whose

Whose promised Coming is both believed in the past, in the Incarnation ; & is looked for in the future, in Judgment ;

Be clement.

Who hast appointed that the beginning, & perfection of all Religion, should be in the Mystery of Thy Nativity ;

Be clement.

Who, by Thy first Coming, Thy true Light made all things clear & manifest, both in understanding, & to fight ;

Be clement.

Who dost gladden us with the annual expectation of our Redemption ;

Be clement.

Who didst wonderfully form, & still more wonderfully reform the dignity of man's nature in Thy Nativity ;

Be clement.

Who, by Thy Birth of the B. Virgin, hast made us to be free from all injury from our first father ;

Be clement.

Who,

Who, by Thy unspeakable Gift, didst provide that our human nature, created in Thy Likeness, but made unlike through sin, should not perish
by everlasting damnation ;

Be clement.

Who, by Thy Infinite Mercy, didst thence restore life, whence sin had brought in death ;

Be clement.

Who, by Thy wondrous Incarnation, hast effaced the transgression of the Virgin of old, by a new & undefiled Virgin, Mary ;

Be clement.

Who, by the wonderful Sacrament of Thy Advent, hast made it known that what was promised by the holy Prophets, hath been fulfilled ;

Be clement.

We sinners ;

Do beseech Thee to bear us.

That we who rejoice in Thy first Coming,
may, at Thy second Coming, receive the reward of everlasting Life ;

Grant us, Gracious LORD.

That,

That, free from all defilements of sin, we may await without terror the Day of tremendous trial;

Grant us.

That, through Thy Coming, we may both know Thee with our whole mind; & follow with our whole heart, what is pleasing unto Thee;

Grant us.

That Thou lead us to everlasting Rewards, Who redeemedst us from darkness; that Thou justify us, Who hast redeemed us; & that Thy Exaltation may defend us from evil, Whose Low-lines raised us to life;

Grant us.

That those who trust in Thy loving Mercy, may speedily be freed from all adversity;

Grant us.

That Thou come to our relief, that from all the perils which hang over us for our sins, we may find Grace to be saved;

Grant us.

That

That we may rejoice together in the Unity of the Faith, that hereafter we may meet Thee undefiled in the Company of Thy Saints;

Grant us.

That Thy Nativity in the Flesh may free us, Whom the servitude of the old man holdeth, under the yoke of sin;

Grant us.

That we, who have received this New Creation, may be stripped of all contagion with the old decrepitude;

Grant us.

That we may be numbered in Thy Inheritance, in Whom the sum of all men's Salvation consists;

Grant us.

That Thou grant us gloriously to believe in, & with praise to confess, Thee, made Man for the redemption of our Souls;

Grant us.

Our

Our Sovereign King, Who, though Thy Throne is attended by glorified Spirits, yet dost not decline the service of men ;

LORD, I am not worthy.

Our Heavenly Physician, Who vouchsafest to descend, from Thy Palace of Immortal Bliss, to our houses of clay, to visit us on beds of sickness,
& to give Thyself to comfort our sorrows ;

LORD, I am not worthy.

Our Glorious God, Who sittest at the Right Hand of Thy Eternal FATHER, adored by innumerable Angels, & encompassed with the splendours of inaccessible Light ;

LORD, I am not worthy.

Our Gracious God, Who, condescending to the weakness of our nature, dost cover Thy Glory under the familiar Forms of Bread & Wine ; &
so, dost give Thyself to us miserable sinners ;

LORD, I am not worthy.

Our Merciful God, Who, concealing the Brightness of Thy Majesty under these low & humble Veils, dost invite us to approach unto Thee,

Thee, to lay open our miseries before Thy Eyes,
& to deliver our petitions into Thy Hands ;
LORD, I am not worthy.

Our Pitiful God, Who, to communicate Thy Divine Nature to sinners, dost humble Thyself to descend into our hearts, & by an inconceivable Union to become One with us ;
LORD, I am not worthy.

Have mercy ;
Hear us, Good LORD.

Have mercy ;
Spare us, Good LORD.

JESUS, GOD, & Man ;

The Bread of Life, Which came down from Heaven ; of Which, whosoever eats, shall live for ever ;

& receive the Cup of Salvation.*

Grant that I may go.

The

Grant that I may go.

The Lamb without spot, Who art daily sacrificed, yet always remainest Alive ; Who art continually consumed, yet still remainest Perfect ;

Grant that I may go.

The Good Shepherd, Who layest down Thy Life for Thy sheep, & feedest them with Thine Own Body ;

Grant that I may go.

Who, in this August & Venerable Mystery, art Thyself both Priest & Victim ;

Grant that I may go.

Who, in the Sacred Memorial of Thy Death, hast consummated all Thy Wonders into One Stupendous Miracle ;

Grant that I may go.

Who, in this Adorable Sacrament, hast contracted all Thy Blessings into One Inestimable Bounty ;

Grant that I may go.

Who,

Who, by this blessed Fruit of the Tree of Life, dost restore us again to Immortality ;
Grant that I may go.

Who, by becoming Thyself our daily Food, in this life, dost prepare us to feed on Thee eternally, in the next ;

Grant that I may go.

Who, in this Divine Banquet, givest us possession of Thy Grace here, & a certain pledge of our glory hereafter ;

Grant that I may go.

Spare us, Good LORD ;

& pardon our sins.

Spare us, Good LORD ;

& bear our prayers.

From presuming to measure the depth of Divine Omnipotence by the short line of human reason ;

Good LORD, deliver us.

From all distraction & irreverence, in afflicting at this Awful Sacrifice ;

Good LORD.

M

From

From neglecting to approach Thy Holy Table ; & from coming to It unprepared ;
Good LORD.

From an unworthy, & fruitless reception of this Adorable Sacrament ;
Good LORD.

From all hardness of heart, & ingratitude for so unspeakable a Blessing ;
Good LORD.

By Thy irresistible Power, which changeth the course of nature as Thou willest ;
Be favourable, O CHRIST.

By Thy unsearchable Wisdom, which disposeth all things in perfect order ;
Be favourable.

By Thy Infinite Goodness, which freely bestows Thyself, in this Incomprehensible Mystery ;
Be favourable.

By Thy most Sacred Body, broken, for us, upon the Cross, & really given unto us, in the Holy Communion ;
Be favourable.

By

By Thy most Precious BLOOD, poured out, for us, upon the Cross, & really given unto us in the Cup of Blessing ;

Be favourable.

We sinners, most humbly beseech Thee ;

To bear us, O LORD JESU CHRIST.

And that it may please Thee to grant That we may always believe nothing more reasonable, than to submit our reason unto Thee ;

We beseech Thee to bear us, Good LORD.

That, by this Sacred Oblation, we may acknowledge Thine infinite Perfections in Thyself, & Thy supreme Dominion over all things ;

We beseech Thee.

That, by this Adorable Sacrifice, we may acknowledge our perpetual dependence upon Thee, & our absolute subjection to Thy Will ;

We beseech Thee.

That we may eternally magnify Thy Goodness, Who, having no need of us, hast contrived such endearing motives to make us love Thee ;

We beseech Thee.

That

That we may thankfully comply with Thy Gracious Desire of being united to us, by a fervent desire to be made One with Thee ;

We beseech Thee.

That, before we approach the Banquet of Divine Love, we may endeavour to be reconciled to Thee, & be in perfect charity with all the world ;

We beseech Thee.

That, at the moment of receiving Thy Sacred BODY & Thy Precious BLOOD our Souls may be dissolved in reverence & love, to attend on & entertain so glorious a Guest ;

We beseech Thee.

That, returning from the Holy Eucharist, we may collect all our thoughts to praise & bless Thee, & endeavour to effect the amendment of our lives ;

We beseech Thee.

That, by this Heavenly Preservative, our heart may be healed of all infirmities, & our will strengthened against all relapses ;

We beseech Thee.

That,

That, as by Faith, we adore Thee here, present beneath these Sacred Veils ; so, we may hereafter behold Thee Face to face, & eternally rejoice in the Beatific Vision ;

We beseech Thee.
